

CROSSROADS CORNER

Crossroads Names Its Mascot

After much debate and several rounds of voting, Crossroads Family Services officially named its flamingo mascot— Mingo the Flamingo! Anyone can sign up to Flamingo a Friend as a great practical joke and a unique way to celebrate a special occasion. You can purchase anywhere from 30–50 flamingos and Crossroads will deliver the flock to your friend's front yard! Sign up at www.cfsplano.org.

Crossroads Spotlight

Meredith Marsh

Live from Collin County Coming Soon!

Crossroads Family Services is a beneficiary of the long-time community tradition of Live from Collin County. This year's show, entitled 'Gawking at Our Winter Blunderland' will feature a great show, silent and live auction, and pre-show dinner. The show will run April 17th and 18th at the McKinney Performing Arts Center. You can purchase tickets by going to www.livefromcc.com.

Meredith Marsh is the clinical director at Crossroads. She holds a masters degree from Texas Women's University and is a licensed professional counselor. Meredith oversees all clinical operations at Crossroads and an invaluable part of the Crossroad's team. Meredith recently became engaged after her fiancée proposed to her at a cathedral in Italy.

CFS to Participate in Non-Profit Board Fair

In a continued effort to develop and improve its board of directors, Crossroads Family Services will participate in the Non-Profit Board Fair sponsored by the Junior League of Plano, the Volunteer Center of North Texas, and the Young Professionals of Plano division of the Plano Chamber of Commerce. The event will be held April 8th from 5:00 to 8:00 p.m. at the Collin County Community College Spring Creek Campus. Persons interested in serving on the boards of local non-profit organizations are encouraged to attend.
